PUBLIC.

The 6th February 1912.

No. 319.—The following telegram, dated the 4th February 1912, from His Excellency the Viceroy to His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, is published for general information :—

The Ruling Princes and Chiefs of India, on the one hand, and the non-official Members of my Legislative Council, acting on behalf of the people of British India, on the other, desire that I should forward to the Prime Minister the following message from the Princes and people of India to the people of Great Britain and Ireland. Telegrams from the leading Ruling Princes and Chiefs signifying this desire have been received, and the non-official Members of my Council have acted on the authority of public meetings held at important centres in the different Provinces, at which resolutions, expressing the sentiments embodied in the message, have been adopted.

Message begins.—The Princes and people of India desire to take the opportunity afforded by the conclusion of the Royal visit to convey to the great English nation an expression of their cordial goodwill and fellowship; also an assurance of their warm attachment to the world-wide Empire of which they form part, and with which their destinies are now indissolubly linked.

Their Imperial Majesties' visit to India, so happily conceived and so successfully completed, has produced a profound and ineffaceable impression throughout the country. Their Imperial Majesties, by their gracious demeanour, their unfailing sympathy, and their deep solicitude for the welfare of all classes, have drawn closer the bonds that unite England and India, and have deepened and intensified the traditional feeling of loyalty and devotion to the Throne and person of the Sovereign, which has always characterised the Indian people. Conscious of the many blessings which India has derived from her connection with England, the Princes and people rejoiced to tender in person their loyal and loving homage to Their Imperial Majesties. They are confident that this great and historic event marks the beginning of a new era, ensuring greater happiness, prosperity and progress to the people of India, under the ægis of the Crown. Message ends.

By order of the Governor General in Council,

A. EARLE,

THE CANTONMENT CODE, 1912.

*Short Title.Short title.

1. These rules and applied enactments*
may be called the Cantonment Code, 1912.

* This Code consists, not only of rules made under ss. 24 and 25 of the Cantonments Act, 1910 (XV of 1910), but also of certain enactments applied in exercise of the powers conferred by s. 23. Thus the provisions contained in, for example, s. 174 of the Code could scarcely be made the subject of a rule under the Act, and would probably be held to be ultra vires if the rule-making power were relied upon to give them validity; but they are taken, mutatis mutandis, from s. 188 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911 (III of 1911), and their validity rests on the power of the Governor-General in Council to "extend to any cantonment any enactment for the time being in force in any municipality in British India, and declare its extension subject to such restrictions and modifications, if any, as he thinks fit". See ante, p. 17. In the case of each section of the Code which appears to be, in whole or in part, an "applied enactment", a reference to the original has been added on the margin.

† In addition to these definitions, the definitions in s. 2 of the Cantonments Act, 1910 (XV of 1910), apply and should be borne in mind—see s. 20 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897). Further, the provisions of the latter Act are applicable.

The Cantonment Code, 1912.

- (m) "market" means a place in a cantonment where persons periodically assemble for purposes of selling any articles of food for human consumption:
- (n) "notification" means a notification in the local official Gazette:
- (o) "notified" means published by notification:
- (p) "private market" means a market not maintained by the cantonment authority:
- (q) "private slaughter-house" means a slaughter-house not maintained by the cantonment authority:
- (r) "public market" means a market maintained by the cantonment authority:
- (s) "public slaughter-house" means a slaughter-house maintained by the cantonment authority:
- (t) "regimental bazar" means a bazar under the management of regimental authorities:
- (u) "Sanitary Officer" means, where no Sanitary Officer has been specially appointed, the senior executive Medical Officer in military employ on duty in a cantonment:
- (v) "sarai" means a building in a cantonment ordinarily used, whether wholly or in part, for the accommodation of native travellers:
- (w) "slaughter-house" means a place in a cantonment ordinarily used for the slaughter of animals for the purpose of selling the flesh for human consumption:
- (x) "source of public water-supply" includes every public well, tank, river, stream, spring, channel, reservoir or other source in a cantonment from which water is or may be made available for public use, whether or not it is used for the purposes of water-works, and also every source of water-supply situate on private premises to the use of which the public is entitled:
- (y) "street" includes any way, road, lane, square, court, alley, passage or open space in a cantonment, whether a thoroughfare or not and whether built upon or not, over which the public have a right of way, and also the roadway and footway over any bridge or causeway: and
- (z) "treasury" means the Government treasury or sub-treasury, or the bank or place prescribed by or under section 20 of the Cantonments Act, 1910, for the custody of the cantonment fund of a cantonment.
